AN INTRODUCTION TO SHIVAM STONEX

Before starting the introduction of Shivam Stonex, we want to shift your attention toward the portrait of Tajmahal. This Iconic Monument does not need any introduction but we have deep connection with this and what is that, lets wait for this. We are leading manufacturer and exporter of Fireplace portals in India. We have India's Largest inventory of Designed Marble Fireplace portals. Making Chimneypiece requires Painsstaking exercise which requires an extraordinary level of skill, expertise and patience. There can be no compromise in the process, and it is this rigorous approach which has guided the development of our entire range of designs.

A fireplace should be the primary focus of any room, and therefore we ensure that every one of our fireplaces embodies the finest craftsmanship and integrity of design.

Now we would like to tell you about the relation of Tajmahal with our fireplace, we use one of the world's finest metamorphic rock Makrana Sangemarmar, which is India's only calcatic marble rock and possess lustrous appearance. Due to high calcitic content this marble is resistant to water seepage and contain its white colour for years.

We provide fireplace with various stone available in our inventory that are shown in this catalogue.

CONTEMPORARY

simple modern design combines with clear architectural form to ensure the fireplace remains the focus of the room

MODERN

the designers whose work appears on the following pages are drawn from a number of different disciplines but all share a common aim of bringing a fresh and innovative perspective to the field of fireplace design ranging from queen anne to edwardian and including both english and french designs, this collection is recognised by conservation bodies worldwide for its accuracy and authenticity.

FRENCH & ITALIAN STYLE

inspired by the baroque, renaissance and rococo periods, our french & italian fireplaces capture the decadence of 18th-century european design.
